

Bio

“You don't have to be great to get started, but you have to get started to be great.”
- Les Brown

Blessing Ndlovu

Blessing was born in KwaZulu Natal, and grew up in 3 different provinces: EC, KZN and 13 years in Gauteng. At the age of 13, during the 2010 Fifa World Cup, he was part of a community theatre group that did a performance for an International soccer team. He discovered the love of acting, being on stage and on camera!

In 2014 Blessing was featured in a few TVCs and local dramas like Abangani, Good Samaritan on Mzansi magic. He started training at the Market Theatre under John Kani. Blessing then signed up with an agency where he started doing featured work on screen. He says it has been a lovely journey. A funny anecdote from that time is that he texted the agency, and they asked, “is that you in your profile picture?”. He said yes, and that’s how he booked the job!

In 2016 he started his own pageant called Mr and Miss Good SA, which was doing really well for 3 years. And then another amazing opportunity opened up, which was a scholarship to study TV production and filmmaking operations in Cape Town. So he was on the next flight to Cape Town and started a new chapter, studying what he loves, in the Mother city, and his 4th Province!

Ever since then, life - in Blessing’s words - “has been absolutely amazing”. He felt he gained the skills he needed, and was exposed to many opportunities of working on different film sets. He has been building good relationships in the film industry, which he feels has helped him to grow personally and professionally.

Blessing joined the Kayos team in 2019 as an intern and now currently does Quality Control. This means he ensures that clients get the premium casting presentation at the end of the day. Blessing applies his varied skills and knowledge where needed, and has been industrious with developing new systems, and has a sharp mind with regards to many technical aspects of film making!

If Blessing is not on his laptop, he is outdoors cycling, taking long walks or reading books.

In Blessings words, “Always prefer progress than movement. That’s why I love Cape Town”.

Specialisation & Accreditation

- Video, TV and Filmmaking Operation Diploma
- Business Management
- Self motivated Entrepreneur